

Monthly February 2013 'B'

USA PRODUCTION NEWS

Editorial

Dear Subscriber,

February is the traditional start of network pilot season and for the next 12 weeks, the studios and networks will be in a dizzy dance step of approvals, casting, hiring directors and crew in order to make the May Network announcements. With the addition of some cable pilots (which happen more often throughout the year) to the mix this spring, we are expecting somewhere in the neighborhood of 120 pilot productions over this three month period.

We're not ignoring features either, with approximately an equal number in various stages of development and pre-production that we are tracking and will be including as soon as actionable contact information is available.

We appreciate your support and trust you will find this monthly edition to be useful.

Sincerely,
Linda Klein
